

ZAHRA JAFRI

PRESIDENT & CO-FOUNDER
LYNX MORTGAGE BANK

- ABOUT ZAHRA -

With over 20 years of industry experience, Zahra Jafri has the knowledge vital for success. A natural entrepreneur, she began Lynx Equities in 1989 and continued to expand her understanding of the mortgage business on Long Island. Zahra's dedication to learning was the driving force behind the success of her business. Over the next decade, she developed many well-established relationships with leading brokers and attorneys.

In 2004, Zahra, along with her partners, founded Lynx Mortgage Bank LLC, and has been setting the industry standard ever since. She remains very active in the mortgage industry outside of her company. She is a member of many mortgage associations and currently serves as President of the Empire State Mortgage Banker's Association. She is an active member of the ESMBA's Legislative Team and promotes advocacy for the industry both on a state and federal level. Zahra is a past president of the New York Association of Mortgage Brokers and is a recipient of many industry awards where she has been recognized by her peers.

- ABOUT LYNX MORTGAGE BANK -

Lynx Mortgage Bank was founded by a small group of mortgage and financial professionals on Long Island, seeking to offer customers a simple "no surprises" approach to the mortgage process. Today, we're a growing business with a sizable — and highly satisfied — client base throughout Long Island, Queens, Manhattan, Westchester and Brooklyn. We've made it a point to grow responsibly, by taking the time necessary to be sure our customers are completely satisfied in every way. This attention to detail has allowed us to provide a level of partner access practically unknown in the mortgage banking industry.
